Then, apply an extra thick coat of polish - too something that mixes with your second color to create marbling. Note: You can choose both nail polish colors for this tutorial as long as they contrast, but Falcon advises against metallic, as they tend to separate. 2 points in contrasting color. Apply a small amount of the second shadow using your Dutter tool. 3. Rotate two shades. Gently move the dotter tool around your nails, spreading contrasting colors. If you notice a slightly overly mixed shade, don't worry — Falcon recommends simply adding an extra couple of points from lighter for contrast. Let your design dry for a bit, as the polish is incredibly thick and therefore easier to smear. 4 Add a top coat to seal your design. Who doesn't want these nails to go on forever? Use a sleek top coat to ensure your marble art stays in. 5 Voila!
